VOL. XXVII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1900, 9 A. M.

NO. 90

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

M. F. Reddick, of Somerset, killed 28 quail in 30 shots.

John G. Fee, founder of Berea College, is dead, aged 84.

Z. Roberts, of Manchester, has leased the Garnett House at Richmond.

J. H. Mullins, who killed the two Craft brothers in Laurel, was acquitted.

Dr. Oren H. Witherspoon died at Lawrenceburg from injuries received in a fall.

Louis Patterson Newell, aged 61, a well-to-do farmer of Putnam, died suddenly last week.

William Hysinger and George Mullins, of Rockcastle, killed 100 birds and 105 rabbits in a three days' hunt.

The Lebanon banks have compromised with the fiscal court for taxes for county purposes for 1899 by paying 60 per cent on their capital stock.

Thk fiscal court of Putnam agreed to compromise with Ex-Sheriff Watson for $2,500 and Ex-Sheriff Cooper for $3,000, says the P. H. Journal.

G. E. Black, of Madison county, purchasing agent for Nelson, Morris & Co., Chicago, married Miss Mary Crawford, daughter of Harry Crawford, a wealthy farmer of Clark county.

Lieut. Robert Stevenson, of Somerset, formerly a member of the First Kentucky, who saw active service in Puerto Rico, has been appointed military instructor at Central University.

In a general fight on Outer creek in Clay county, Saturday, Lige Lewis and General May were killed and four other participants wounded. Four of the men who took part in the fight are in jail at Manchester.

Andrew Warren, aged 82, father of that splendid democrat, Matthew Warren, of Somerset, died in the White Lily section of Putnam. The P. H. Journal says he was one of the best citizens in the county.

Frank S. Alexander, express messenger on the Queen & Crescent, had his right arm fractured and thrown out of joint in loading express between Danville and Burgin, and he was put off at Nicholasville to have his limb reset.

Eugene Cassell, aged about 50 years, a farmer living in Jessamine, was shot and killed by a chicken thief. He went to the chicken house, and after he was killed, his wife and children were afraid to leave the house, and his body lay in the yard all night.

Hon. Sam H. Kash, of Clay, is up against it again. The grand jury of Franklin indicted him for seducing Miss Katie Woods, the daughter of Hon. David Woods, of Clay county, who represented that district in the Legislature in 1898. The seduction is said to have taken place at Frankfort in January, 1898, at the home of Kash's parents, who at that time conducted a legislative boarding house. Kash was a republican elector for the State at large in the last presidential campaign.

GILBERTS CREEK.

Jake Robinson is feeding cattle this season at W. H. Traylor's distillery. A valuable steer belonging to A. T. Traylor was killed Saturday near the stop yard by being pushed over the cliff by the other cattle.

Wm. Moser has sold his farm near this place to his brother, John Moser, at $50 per acre, and will remove with his family to the place recently purchased by him near McCormacks. Mr. Moser is a good citizen and as such enjoys the confidence and esteem of his neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Doty visited relatives near this place. Mrs. Johnson, who was Miss Lizzie Palmer, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Traylor. Brunette, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arnold, of Hyattsville, spent several days with her little cousins, Frankie Doty and Willie Gordon Traylor. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dudderar entertained a few days ago in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Gooch, the newly married couple, and those present had quite an enjoyable day.

Dun's annual review says: The failures of 1899 are the smallest ever reported since 1881 with the lowest average of commercial liabilities ever reported, and with greater evidence of commercial soundness and industrial prosperity than has appeared in any other annual statement.

The Chesapeake & Ohio has about completed its new double track system between Ashland and Clinton Forge and by June 1 the entire main line will be operated under a double track system, except at Hig Bend Tunnel, near Hinton, Va., which is so narrow that it will not permit of two tracks.

Edwards Sinclair, cashier of the Deposit Bank of Russellville, was shot and dangerously wounded at Keyesburg, Ky., by W. H. Elliott, of Nashville, Tenn., his brother-in-law. The shooting was without apparent cause, and friends of Elliott say his mind is wrong.

The Pennsylvania railroad company sustained a loss of $100,000 by the burning of its Juniata blacksmith shop in Pennsylvania.

McKINNEY.

Our old and much loved friend, J. C. Goode, who has been in almost constant service as agent for the C. S., and later the Q. & C. R. R. at Eubanks, for more than 20 years, has tendered his resignation and will likely retire from the service altogether. Of the vast number of employees of the Q. & C., a better man than J. C. Goode could hardly be found and the office at Eubanks will seem incomplete without him.

Hon. Henry Taylor, of Casey, was here Sunday on his way to Frankfort. He has been in the Legislature four days and says he is tiring of it already, on account of its disgusting partisan features. What has become of the good morals our fathers sought to instill? Shall our greed for official positions lead us to dishonor the men whom we should emulate and delight to honor? A rumbling from ancient graves as if their corpses were turning face downward, is the only response.

T. W. Walker and wife have packed their goods and left for High Bridge, Kentucky and points in Illinois. Henry Tombs has moved in and will look after their property until their return next Spring. Dr. Frank Grider has purchased of Cleo Reynolds the property on the elevation near the school house and has moved into it. The price paid was $250. D. L. Moore, the blacksmith who had to move on account of the trade, is now quietly domiciled in Dr. Alcorn's property on Main street.

G. M. Combest, the druggist, is now keeping house on the corner of Main and Stanford streets. Mrs. Combest having finished her school near Mintonsville, and joined him here a few days ago. W. D. Gooch, who served his county for 16 consecutive years as a democrat justice of the peace, has just paid his daughter, Mrs. Lulu Gooch, a three weeks' visit. The old gentleman is hale and hearty and the 75 years that he will have rounded up on the 29th, should fortune favor, do not seem to have left their imprint on his young manhood.

He spends much of his time reading and thinks the present scramble for office by the new fangled democracy in Kentucky, enough to disgust all honest people. W. C. Bryant and family have returned from a several days' visit to relatives in Illinois and New York. Mr. Bryant is again at his post at the depot and Mr. Vandever, who made many friends here in a short time, has gone to Moreland for the present. Rev. J. A. Gooch, of Butler, visited his son, W. D., and his brother, W. H., here last week. He is severely afflicted with croupous nerves of the feet and is being treated by the best physicians, who say that when well, he will be able to walk on a red hot bar of iron and not feel any pain from it. He is now able to walk but not willing to tackle the hot iron. Miss Manele Ware spent the holidays with her parents.

W. R. GOOCH.

Referring to our article, saying that democrats should discriminate in favor of Cincinnati because Louisville merchants have made themselves obnoxious, the Lexington Herald says: If the subscribers to and readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL want to get the best goods for the least money they will not go to either Louisville or Cincinnati, but will come to Lexington, where, whether they be democrats or republicans, prohibitionists or populists, they will be treated courteously, honestly, fairly and get what they want cheaper than any other city in Kentucky or Ohio.

SCHOLARSHIP FREE.—You may, by doing a little writing at your home, secure a scholarship free in either Draughn's Practical Business College—Savannah, Nashville, St. Louis, Little Rock, Ft. Worth, Galveston, or Shreveport. Best patronized in the South. For full particulars address The Illustrated Youth and Age, Nashville, Tenn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Proverb calendar for 1900 is the prettiest we have seen. It is borne in front of two little girls, whose fresh, sweet faces, and dainty robes of blue and pink form a pleasing picture upon which to look during the coming year. We are indebted to the firm for a couplet them.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box sold by Penny, Druggist.

"A young man came into our store yesterday suffering from a severe attack of cramp colic," writes B. F. Hess, miller and general merchant, Hickey's Mountain, Pa. "He had tried various home remedies without relief. As I had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I gave him a dose and it soon brought him out all right. I never saw a fellow so rejoiced." Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

LANCASTER.

R. Zimmer is here preparing to open his confectionery and restaurant.

"Crow Eye," in the Record, tells the truth about blind tigers and dudes. He proposes to tell how to cage the tigers.

As puzzles are going the rounds, please tell me how a quart of whisky can be put into a pint flask all at one time. It can be done.

I am glad to note that Senator Farrel and Representative Ray are on important committees in the Legislature, and they will discharge their duties, unless Whallen interferes.

I extend hearty congratulations to Hon. George E. Stone and the best wishes to his bride. He has gained a victory worth the long battle, which he has fought, and she has won a precious Stone.

Mr. John Francis, manager of G. M. Patterson's electric plant at Corbin, was robbed last week of about $50 and some books. The books were afterwards found. He was out alone and was held and choked while being robbed.

Prof. J. H. Patterson and Hnn. J. Hunt McMurtry have solved the problem, given in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, in reference to the 300 acres of land. The solution will be sent if required. (Send it, please.—Ed.)

Capt. T. A. Ekin has returned from Atlanta, having sold his mules. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Poor have moved to their beautiful home on the Danville road. J. A. Beasley is now sole proprietor of his furniture and undertaking business, having bought the interest of Mr. Thomas Haughman.

Mr. W. H. Atkinson, of Magoffin, is U. S. Storekeeper at Pilgrimage distillery. Prof. George Dunlap, of Lexington, was here last week. Mr. J. A. Royston's family has moved to Junction City. Remond Naylor will move to town. Prof. J. H. Patterson tells me that he has 40 new pupils in the graded school.

The latest wonder is that republicans are defending Jno. Whallen, but they would defend the devil if he should become so degraded as to champion their cause. In fact some of them here are anarchists, as they defy the law and say that Goebel should not be permitted to take his seat even if the Legislature declares that he is entitled to it.

The like of moving and changing was never known in Lancaster before. E. W. Norris is now in the Thompson block, J. M. Logan is in the Owsley block. Wm. Ball, Clay Hamilton, Ed Galves, R. E. Thompson and probably C. D. Powell will all start grocery stores, making 15 in all. Paulson and Herndon have moved into the room vacated by J. M. Logan.

The very low depths to which some people can fall is shown by the practice of writing anonymous letters. This time some one wrote Rev. J. C. Masses a letter about the business conduct of one of his members although the transaction was perfectly legitimate. The act of writing the letter shows a malignant spirit, without the courage to come out and make the charge publicly.

Mr. John Wright, census supervisor for the 8th district, was here last week discharging his duty. He says that there will be eight districts in the county and that the enumerators will be required to do the work in the 26 working days in June. We had a pleasant chat about old times and he seems to retain the remarkable mental vigor which he possessed long ago.

The enormous growth of the fund for the relief of the widow of Gen. Lawton is commendable, but it verifies the fact that we are hero worshippers. Start a charity fund for worthy widows of worthy men, who died in peace or in war, but who had lived in obscurity, and one tenth of the amount would not be raised. Charity calls for general aid. Its objects should not be selected alone from those in the higher walks of life, where it is least needed.

James Ware, who in the military service at Manila, having enlisted at Hopkinsville, sent his sister, Mrs. R. E. McRoberts, an issue of "The American," a large, daily paper published in Manila. It has many attractive features and is already Americanized, as it bears the motto "Equal Rights for All." It also has equal houring whiskey and Anheuser beer advertised. It advertises a Hong Kong banking corporation with a capital of $10,000,000 and a reserve fund of $11,000,000. It publishes more about the war between the British and the Boers than about the war waged on its own territory, and favors the British.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proposition of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hayfever and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Jaifer Ector was kicked to death at Winchester by a vicious horse.

"UNCLE JOSIE"—That sterling attraction, "Uncle Josh Sprimey," will appear at Walton's Opera House, Thursday night, 11th. The popularity of this celebrated New England comedy is phenomenal. It is now in its 10th successful season and its drawing powers are still on the increase. A very large cast is necessary for the proper production of the play and 35 people are in the company. The manager, Mr. Levins, has secured a remarkably strong company of acting people. All the scenery is new and many new mechanical effects are introduced. The sensational saw mill scene is used, and as a press critic says: "It is so realistic that it is almost painful." New and bright specialties are introduced. A big orchestra of 12 soloists is carried by the company and the splendid program of classical and popular airs rendered is a feature.

W. P. WALTON.

TEN democrats and one populist will hear the contest of Senator Goebel for the governorship and nine democrats and two republicans the contest for lieutenant governor. In the two contests for seats in the Senate the democrats drew seven out of nine to try one case and eight out of nine to try the other. In the contests for seats in the House the democrats drew majorities on eight committees and the republicans got majorities on 10. The committee to try the contest of Walker vs. Ray from Garrard county is solidly democratic, but the redheaded turocoat will doubtless get full justice. There was no charge of unfairness in the drawing in the Senate, but certain republicans tried to besmirch the reputation of Clerk Ed O. Leigh, the latebet of whose shoes they are not worthy to unloose, by charging that he had placed the names of democrats in one end of the box and republicans in the other, and shook the box in such a way that the relative positions would not be changed. The outrageous charge was denounced by resolution presented by Representative Cantrill as false and unbecoming a legislative body. One of the republicans, who made the charge of unfairness, withdrew it and said that the drawing was entirely fair. The object of the whole business was to discount the committees in advance and counteract the exposure of their efforts through Whallen to bribe members to vote their way. Nothing seems too low for the republicans to do, but their efforts are always so transparent that they trip themselves up.

EDITOR GELATT, of the Louisville Commercial, speaks of Gov. Bradley as a recent convert to republicanism. As he, Gelatt, understands the meaning of the word, and then goes on to say that the governor sulked in his tent and it was only at the 11th hour and after great persuasion that he was induced to champion the cause of Taylor and his gang. Notwithstanding all this, however, he thinks that the governor is entitled to the honor of the republicanism nomination for U. S. Senator. "A recent convert to republicanism" won't go. Bradley was fighting for republican principles before even Gelatt was harnessed. By the way, the Commercial seems to have fallen out with the world and the rest of mankind. The effort to intill Ohio politics into Kentuckians won't work and in its efforts to force it down their throats, the Commercial seems to have lost its constituency, if it had one.

JUDGE CANTRILL very promptly and properly, no doubt, granted the injunction asked by Election Commissioners Poyatz, Fulton and Yontz against Taylor's appointees, Mackoy and Cochran, laterfering in the trial of contests. Then in order to permit an appeal at once to the court of appeals so that the matter can be settled fully and finally, the judge on his own motion dissolved the injunction. The attorneys for the democratic commissioners will at once give notice, and ask one of the judges of the court of appeals to reinstate the injunction temporarily until the case can be heard on its merits before a full court. Meanwhile the regular commissioners will proceed with their work as if nothing had happened, and take up the contests tomorrow as previously announced. The candidates for the minor offices are jubilant over Judge Cantrill's decision, as it virtually gives them the offices if sustained.

IN order to facilitate matters and prevent the republicans from attempting to prevent a joint session for considering contests, the Senate by a vote of 20 to 31 adopted a rule making Speaker Trimble chairman of the joint session instead of the acting lieutenant governor, Marshall. The house voted on the rule yesterday and also adopted it. It further provides that a joint session may be called by Speaker Trimble.

IT is said that the Legislature eatry Whallen and Ryan for their attempts to bribe Senator Harrell, and if it found them guilty the governor can not pardon them. If this be true, the greasy carcass of the Buckleagham boss will pretty soon be inside of jail instead of his low down dive, from whence he conducts the affairs of the so-called honest election league.

SENATOR QUAY is playing in bad luck. The committee had voted 4 to 3 against seating him and he sought to win votes in the Senate by appealing to the stomachs of the members, but it wouldn't work. Of the 48 invited to a swell dinner given by him only 15 accepted. It is pretty safe to predict that Quay won't be seated.

HON. JOHN M. MELDON'S new paper, the Kentucky State Democrat, published at Frankfort, is worthy of its sire and its name. There is no Brown bottlag element in its make up, but is straight democratic goods, a yard wide and all wool, and deserves to grow and prosper.

THE way courts go for an estate when they get a chance to fix a fee for a lawyer is a caution. A judge at Chicago has just allotted Robt. T. Lincoln and his partner $435,000 for winding up the estate of the late George M. Pullman, the palace car man. It is said to be the largest amount ever allowed in the State and was done probably on the idea that the Pullman estate ought to be divided among the people whom he and his porters had robbed.

JUDGE TARVIN set aside a divorce decree because the man married before his court adjourned, but the court of appeals promptly turned him down. A judge in Louisville, who heard 250 petitions for divorce last year, thinks however that a law should be passed providing that divorced people shall not marry within a year at least.

THE first week of the Legislature resulted in the strengthening of democracy all along the lines. We confidently believe that in less than a month Goebel and his ticket will be in full and undisputed possession of the offices to which they were elected.

THE Louisville Commercial continues to tear its shirt, but as it is the only loser nobody pays any attention to its four column, horse type editorials.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

A Bryan banquet to cost $5 a plate is being arranged at Frankfort. The Senate committee voted 4 to 3 against seating Quay, of Pennsylvania. Hon. P. H. Taylor, of Casey, and A. R. Dyebe, of London, are applicants for State inspector and examiner.

"Yes, Lord, there's trouble in the land; gwino to take the office out of 'Hog Jaw's' hand."—Kentucky State Journal, Frankfort.

Whallea has made a cold bluff by swearing out a warrant against Senator Harrell, charging him with obtaining money under false pretense.

The Senate after formal charges against John Whallen and Charley Ryan, the bribers, adopted a resolution appointing an investigating committee. Hon. M. V. Sullivan was nominated by the joint democratic caucus of the Mississippi General Assembly for the short term in the United States Senate.

Representative Hopkins, of the ways and means committee, says that as changes in the war tax will be made at this session of Congress. And at no other, he might have added, till the democrats come into power.

Kentucky is not in such bad shape, with a democratic Legislature sending up to the Senate that strong democrat, Joe Blackburn. Next year Virginia's daughter will give a good account of herself.—Haver, Va., Herald.

A bill to provide for a new capitol was introduced in the House at Frankfort yesterday. It creates a board of Statehouse commissioners, and sets aside three cents out of the tax levy on each $100 of property for a Statehouse fund.

Green Keller, who had met with the anti-Goebellites, passed home en route from Frankfort, saying that Goebel seemed to have everything his own way, and would get the offices for himself and other democrats.—Paris Kentuckian.

State Treasurer Day is said to be ineligible because of his age. It is claimed that he is only 28 years of age and the law requires the treasurer to be 30. This ought not to cut any figure, however, since he will stay in such a short time.

At a Jackson day banquet in Chicago, Col. W. J. Bryan took strong grounds against the currency bill now before Congress and declared the entire policy of the administration in relation to the Philippines to be utterly wrong. His speech was received with great enthusiasm.

In the Senate committees, George T. Harris is made chairman both of banks and insurance, of enrollments, and placed on railroads and commerce, rules and religious and morals. N. W. Utley is chairman of penitentiaries and houses of reform and Win. Goebel of rules.

Hon. P. M. McRoberts was put on the committees of codes of practice, county and circuit courts, Laflerty heads the Judiciary committee, and other important chairmanships are: Railroads, Nelson; Statutes, Terrell; Municipalities, Charlton; Corporations, Realeck; Charitable Institutions, Hinton; Elections, Bosley.

In a note to the Courier Journal, President M. H. Smith, of the L. & N., says: All of the allegations against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company contained in the notices of contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor, as published in your issue of the 3d inst., are untrue.

In an interview at Chicago, Urey Woodson says: "Mr. Goebel will be in possession of the governor's office between Jan. 25 and Feb. 1. There will be no trouble for the republicans and, I don't think that we have the fighters on our side, and if they attempt to use force to retain Taylor in the chair, we will simply clean them out."

The Goebel-Taylor and Beekham-Marshall contest committees have been organized, the former with Representative Hickman as chairman and the latter headed by Senator Coleman. Rules have been adopted and arrangements made both for joint sessions and for subcommittees. The taking of testimony will begin Jan. 15 and will close Jan. 28. A report to the General Assembly will be made the first week in February.

It is a significant fact that all of the "practical" politicians—Sommers, Whallen and Ryan—caught dead to rights conspiring to bribe, are shining lights in the "Honest Election Democrats" faction, which claims a monopoly of political virtue in Kentucky, and one of them—Whallen—is the ruling spirit of the "Honest Election League." Blunt old Sam Johnson was not far wrong when he jeered at "the last resort of scoundrels."—Louisville Times.

Commissioner's Sale!

Of Lands in Whitley County.

LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT.

First National Bank of Stanford, Ky., Plaintiff, vs. Mary E. Varnon and Others, Defendants. In Equity.

In execution of the judgment rendered by Lincoln Circuit Court at its special January Term 1899 in the above styled case, the house and lot in Stanford, Ky., having failed at a public sale under the order of this court to realize money sufficient to satisfy plaintiff's debt, interest and costs, I will on

Wednesday, Jan. 10, 1900

On the land in Whitley County, Ky., between the hours of 11 A. M. and 2 P. M., sell at public outcry to the highest bidder so much of the tract of land containing

ABOUT 500 ACRES.

Of the said land Miss Mary E. Varnon in said county, as will satisfy the judgment rendered in action and the amount on that day to be realized in $111.88, being the residue of plaintiff's debt, principal, interest and costs.

Said tract of land is situated in Whitley County, Ky., 200 acres of which, more or less, lie on the East side of the right-of-way of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and 250 acres, more or less, lie on the West side of the right-of-way of said railroad. The commissioner will offer for sale first, the land, or so much thereof, lying on the East side of the right-of-way of said railroad and 4 the land on the East side does not realize enough to satisfy the amount above named the commissioner will then offer for sale the land lying on the West side of the railroad, or so much as may be necessary for that purpose. The land ordered sold is known as the OLD GILLIS FARM.

And bounded on the North by the lands of Joe Bennett and Henry L. Brummett. On the West side by the lands of Wm. Sawyers and Mrs. Sharpe. On the South by the lands of Col. J. H. Hays and on the East by the lands of Boyd, Jones, Laforce. The land is thin coal land and its access to the railroad makes the entire tract of land very valuable property.

TERMS OF SALE.—A credit of 6 and 12 months, equal installments, on bonds with good security, bearing interest from day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of judgments. A lien will be retained on the land to secure the payments for the purchase money.

BURGALARY.—George W. Craig tells us that a window of the residence of Martin Alcorn, the blind colored pensioner, was forced open Sunday night and $61 in money and two gold watches were stolen from his clothes, which hung on his chair in his room. There is no clue to the bold rascal, who, it is thought, chloroformed the old man. Alcorn will give a reward of $30 for the stolen articles and the thief. M. S. Baughman and Dink Farmer took a bloodhound to the scene and each time it trailed it went to Alcorn's house.

THE Spring-like weather of yesterday brought a big crowd to town, but business wasn't very brisk.

THAT clever ex-Lincoln county gentleman, David F. Logan, has bought an interest in B. G. Fox's Ilvery, horse and mule business at Danville and his legion of friends here hope he will make enough money to soon return to this county.

22.—There were only 22 burials in Buffalo Springs Cemetery last year. Sexton T. J. Teter tells us. Of the number 21 were adults. This is the lowest number of burials for years, which speaks well for the health of Stanford and vicinity.

DELINQUENTS.—About half of those whose property was advertised by Sheriff S. M. Owens, in this paper, came to time with the money yesterday. The rest were sold out, individuals buying the lands and lots in some instances and the county and State the remainder.

BURNED OUT.—Squire John Bailey, who moved from this to Washington county, writes that since he has been there he had his house burned, without insurance, but has nearly completed a new one, where he is ready to entertain any of his Lincoln county friends who may wish to call.

DAUNKIN men who got on at East Bernstadt tried to make Conductor G. W. Delph drink with them and on his refusal began shooting in the ladies' car, creating great consternation. The seamps got off at London, and as they are known they will suffer for their meanness.

Brand to L. G. Gooch at 75c an acre and 180 acres on Buck creek, belonging to W. J. Miller, to Z. Padgett for $200.

AN ANGEL APPEARED.—Mr. Arch B. McKinney, of the McKinney section, tells us that while Mr. George S. McKinney and John Wheat were discussing the scripture at a late hour the other night at the home of the former, an angel appeared on the scene, or in other words, an heir arrived to bless the union of Mr. and Mrs. George S. McKinney, Jr.

Mr. Fields also bought the building and an adjoining lot. The stock of goods involved $5,750.—W. C. Mullins, who recently bought the Eight Gables Hotel, has rented it to George D. Pope, an ex-Stanford man, who will run it at its present high standard.

THE "Uncle Josh Sprucey" company with two big bands, solo operatic orchestra and a car load of special scenery and mechanical effects will be at Walton's Opera House, Thursday night, 11th. This popular attraction bids fair to outlive "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This season the play is presented with a company of actor people specially engaged for their fitness for the parts taken, and a splendid line of specialties are presented: 35 people are in the company. Secure a seat at McRoberts' drug store, 75 cents.

WE are indebted to Supt. R. M. Wiley, of the Eastern Kentucky Asylum at Lexington, for a copy of the 75th annual report of the institution. It shows that there are now in the institution 969 persons, of whom 231 were admitted during the past year. There were 76 deaths and 167 discharged during the year. There are 18 inmates from Lincoln county and the largest from any county is Fayette, 98. Dr. Carl L. Wheeler, of this county, made the pathological report. He held 20 autopsies during the year, five males and 15 females. The largest male brain weighed 52 ounces and the largest female 47 1/2, the smallest were 41 and 38 ounces respectively.

Col. John B. Thompson says if he had known that Wat fardlin was going to do so foolish, he would have tried to keep him from it.

DEATH.—The infant son and first-born of Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Logan, of Middlesboro, died Saturday morning, after a long illness of pneumonia, aged about 10 months. The little one was named for his father, Sanford M., and was his hope and his mother's joy. Both of them are bowed down with grief, the mother piteously so, and those who have ever felt a parent's love can appreciate their distress in this dark hour and fully sympathize with them. The remains were taken to Richmond Saturday night and on Sunday laid beside the mother of Mr. Logan in the cemetery there. Mrs. M. C. Saufley, the maternal grandmother, and Mrs. G. L. Ponny accompanied the funeral party.

Eugene B. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, a brakeman on the L. & N., and a relative of Dr. E. J. Brown, of Stanford, eloped to Jellico with Miss Attie Brown, of Pulaski, and made her his wife.

Rev. Ira M. Boswell, who held pastorates at Junction City, Mt. Vernon and other towns in this section, was married at Meridian, Miss., where he is now located, to Miss Lucy Cross Minnie.

The Kentuckian says that Miss Cynthia Denham and Charles Rogers, who were married at Jellico, Jan. 22, 1899, kept their secret till Christmas day, when Mr. Rogers went to London and claimed his bride.

Fordyce B. Logan, son of Dr. P. W. Logan, was married last week in Danville to Miss Ivy Green, of Martinsville, Ind., who was on a visit to Miss Logan, the groom's sister. The ceremony was pronounced by Dr. Cooley, of the Episcopal church, and the happy pair will likely go to Martinsville to live. The bride's father is an eminent physician, who enjoys a large practice, and she is related to the Proctors of Danville. Congratulations are cordially extended.

Miss Etta Thomas, a niece of Gen. Joe Wheeler, and Wm. H. Fahrney, a Chicago man, asking $100,000 damages for alleged breach of promise to marry. They have been engaged for four years and the defendant broke it because his family objected.

DUNSVILLE, Jan. 6.—Mr. R. S. Rector, of this place, and Miss Bettie Wells, of Junction City, were joined in the bonds of matrimony Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. W. C. Cundiff. Mr. Rector is a very popular and highly respected gentleman, who should feel proud of winning so charming and amiable a lady as his wife. He is 36 years of age and is one of Casey county's most successful teachers, having been engaged in the work since he was 18 years of age, and is also a successful farmer. Miss Wells is 20 years of age and possesses excellent literary attainments, and is a teacher of splendid reputation. Their marriage was quite a surprise, not even their most intimate friends knowing their intentions. They were guests at a social party at Mr. W. C. Cundiff's and were passing off the time in grand style with 50 other youngsters, when all of a sudden the officiating parson appeared and announced his business. The couple arose to their feet, while the marriage ceremony was performed amid the great surprise of their friends, who hastened to extend to them their warmest and sincerest congratulations. Mr. Rector went to work next morning and his wife went to her school, which lacks only a few days of being out. The writer wishes them much joy and long life, and may their married life bring them the portion of joy that is attributed to it.
